

The artwork on the disc depicts a group of five main characters from the game Pillars of Eternity. From left to right: a man in a red cloak and sword, a man in a dark suit with a red cape, a man with a beard and glowing orange energy in his hand, a woman in silver armor holding a sword, and a woman in a tribal-style outfit with a bow. They are standing on a dark, rocky ground with some small, dark creatures. In the background, there are large, ancient stone pillars and a bright, glowing light source. The title "PILLARS OF ETERNITY" is prominently displayed in the center, with a green, jagged mountain-like shape behind it. The Obsidian Entertainment logo is at the bottom.
